

Al Chang

Class of 1994

Distinguished Alumni Honoree

Al Chang is an expert by trade in the areas of Insurance, Real Estate Finance, Credit /Banking and Promotions. His expertise has afforded him the opportunity to become a proven professional consultant to business owners, political figures, athletes, music entertainers, and the local community he currently loves and serves.

Mr. Chang has been called the walking “Yellow Pages” at times due to his endless networking contacts, resources, and creative solutions to benefit those that he encounters.

Al has obtained coaching and community leadership awards and was most notably named Radio One’s “Unsung Hero”. A proud Princeton graduate from the class of 1994, Al has participated as an athletic booster, volunteer coach, mentor, sports announcer, and community liaison.

Al’s greatest enjoyment is to empower others, especially Princeton youth that are looking to make a positive impact in today’s society via the “Pride Youth Program”. In its 6th year, Al is the founder of “The Pride Youth Program” which focuses on Youth Basketball, Scholastics, Life & Career Skills. He is a proud husband, and father to Tyler and Kobe Chang.

Al strives to live his favorite biblical passage Matthew 5:16 “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.”