

Kiana Trabue

Class of 1997

Distinguished Alumni Honoree

Kiana R. Trabue, MPH, BA, currently serves as Executive Director for The Health Collaborative where she leads Greater Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky collective impact on health agenda, Gen-H. In this role, she provides leadership, strategic direction and oversight for Gen-H which is focused on activating data driven solutions to reduce the impact of chronic disease and build a care system that's healthy by design. Her ultimate goal is make Greater Cincinnati the most equitable and healthy region in the country.

Kiana was recognized by the YWCA of Greater Cincinnati as a 2017 Rising Star. She also received Lead Tribune Media Group's 2017 Healthcare Leadership Award and was a finalist for Legacy Leadership's 2017 Next Generation Leader Award. She is a graduate of the Urban League of Southwest Ohio's 2016 Urban Leader's Institute. She is also a graduate of the Center for Clinical and Translation Science and Training's 2017 Community Leaders Institute.

In 2018 she was one of four alumni who were selected to be inducted into Delta Omega Honorary Society in Public Health at Wright State University. In addition, she was honored as one of Cincinnati's 2018 top Forty Under 40 young professionals by the Cincinnati Business Courier.

In September 2018, she was appointed as a Council Member for the Village of Woodlawn where she will work on behalf of her neighbors to keep "Beautiful Woodlawn", beautiful. She serves on several boards and is a mentor for Public Allies and The Ohio State University.

Kiana is a proud graduate of Princeton High School class of '97. She received her Bachelor of Arts from The Ohio State University and her Master of Public Health from Wright State University. Kiana is a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated Pi Sigma Zeta chapter. At home, she is a loving and devoted mother to two children, Jayla and Jaxon. Her favorite scripture is Luke 12:48: "For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required."