

PFO Meeting minutes

Wednesday 11/28/18

Principal's report--provided by Ms. Sucher

- Just finished Buddy day fundraiser for ProKids, and found out FTB Financial tripled our donation!
- Interim reports should go home tomorrow
- Lots going on this month—mid-year benchmark testing (Math MAP, AIMS Web, MAP Reading)
- Student jobs—new set has just started this week. Added more because kids were excited
- After first of year, Viking Bucks will be changing to green and yellow

Teachers' report--Mrs. Powers and others

- Santa's Corner coming up—kids are really excited
- Sharingville tree still has Kroger Gift cards to be purchased
 - Currently helping 23 of our families
- A local church donated Thanksgiving dinners for 20 of our families, 10 kids will be able to attend Shop with a Cop, Senior class also donating 15 toys for our students
- Dr. Jackson- was contacted by a community member with a donation that will help support choir program with CCM
- Mrs. Benoit- Cultural night will be 2/7- "All Aboard, Traveling Through the Continents".
 - Assembly during day with an Indian dance troupe to kick it off
- Veterans Day lunch- around 30 attendees, very successful
- This year two Bowes $1000 scholarships (instead of $500) for seniors going into education (don't have to be from Sharonville)

Approval of Minutes from October 2018

President's Report--Amy Goohs-Hardman

- See accomplishment list on back of agenda
- Walkathon- weather was perfect and thanks to all who helped when it got moved up a day
- Cereal party was successful – reward for class that raised the most money for Walkathon
- McTeachers night – coloring contest winners awarded this week, class awards for most attendees
- Viking Store opened yesterday—thanks for volunteers for helping
- Fill the Truck is going on district-wide, Princeton Closet is one of beneficiaries
- Book Fair- thanks again for volunteers
- Superintendents Advisory – notes from last night from Raquel
 - Addressed suicide over the Thanksgiving weekend (middle school student)
 - Evendale and Landmark working together on a STEM program
 - February 13 will be Princeton's Got Talent
- PFO Scholarship deadline Monday, no applications yet
- Staff Holiday luncheon- sign up has gone out for holiday treat donations
- Santa's Corner- 6th and 7th
- Chipotle night is next Tuesday the 4th (4-8pm, 33% of sales will be donated)

- Favorite things notebook has been updated- can find it in the office
- SUMC tutoring on Tuesdays, now doing Power Packs (about 50 students) including food for the Thanksgiving Break

Treasurer/Budget report--Jennifer Means

- Busy month
- Working on finalizing Walkathon totals

Chairperson's reports

- Box Tops
 - First submission was for $255.80, still had money from last May- next check will be for almost $450.
 - Traveling trophy still going
 - Hope to have a new classroom contest for January/February leading up to next submission deadline
- Dr. Jackson
 - Hip Hop- 30 kids performed on Buddy Day
 - Choir program returns in March with CCM
 - Next field trip is in February, then 4th and 5th go to Black Violin in April

Anna Ehlerding--Sharonville city event

- Downtown in December (used to be Carriage Rides)
- Expanding the event more this year
- December 15 from 10 am to 2 pm, starting at Depot Square
- Includes carriage rides (free), free pony rides (under 90 lbs), 15 businesses participating in a scavenger hunt with ornament prizes for adults and hidden elves for kids

Next Meeting January 23, 2019

Submitted by Michelle Robenalt

To get the "Buddy Bench" you go from 250 pounds of caps - collected and clean to an 8 foot bench. Recycling at its best!

